

Loyal Lions Newsletter

May

Monthly Center Value:

We Are Responsible: The goal this month is for the children to understand the importance of being responsible. They will explore the meaning of responsibility and learn how dependability, independence, and diligence are all essential qualities of a responsible person.

Spanish Words:

Butterfly: la mariposa

Teacher: el maestro/la maestra

Play: Jugar

Monthly Objectives:

1. To extend on various stories to include all areas of learning
2. To use our creative abilities to bring pretend world to life
3. To explore various careers that children may be interested in
4. Space exploration

Important Dates

May 2nd – 6th – Teacher Appreciation Week

May 5th – Cinco de Mayo

May 6th – 13th – Book Fair

May 30th - Memorial Day (Center Closed)

Week 1: Let's Pretend

Students will explore reality and make-believe through stories!

- Creative learning
- Learning about plays
- Students will have fun make-believing

Week 2: Bringing Books to Life

We will live through the adventures of our books we read.

- Students will act like their favorite character
- We will discuss what makes a good story

Week 3: What will I Be?

Students will be learning about possible career choices for their future

- Where do you live?
- We will talk about different jobs and what each does.
- What types of jobs do our parents have?

Week 4: Creating Our Own Adventure

We will spend the week learning about space and astronomy.

- We will learn about planets and stars.
- We will learn about what an astronaut does.
- Students will take home their very own telescope!